

Thanksgiving Acrostic Play

This acrostic can be used for a short Thanksgiving presentation in the classroom or other children's ministry. Give each child (12) a letter printed on cardstock to hold up and say their part. The entire class can say Happy Thanksgiving at the end.

T is for Thanksgiving, which we celebrate every year.

H is for Hope, for peace far and near.

A is for Appreciation to God on high.

N is for our Needs that every day He supplies.

K is for Kindness we can show to those in need.

S is for Sharing and doing good deeds.

G is for Giving Thanks every time we pray.

I is for Inspiration from that first Thanksgiving Day.

V is for Valuable Friendships, strong and true.

I is for Immeasurable Blessings so wonderful and new.

N is for our Nation and freedoms that we share.

G is for Gratitude expressed to God in our prayers.

Happy Thanksgiving!

© 2010 Audrey Smith

Thanksgiving Acrostic Play

This acrostic can be used for a short Thanksgiving presentation in the classroom or other children's ministry. Give each child (12) a letter printed on cardstock to hold up and say their part. The entire class can say Happy Thanksgiving at the end.

T is for Thanksgiving, which we celebrate every year.

H is for Hope, for peace far and near.

A is for Appreciation to God on high.

N is for our Needs that every day He supplies.

K is for Kindness we can show to those in need.

S is for Sharing and doing good deeds.

G is for Giving Thanks every time we pray.

I is for Inspiration from that first Thanksgiving Day.

V is for Valuable Friendships, strong and true.

I is for Immeasurable Blessings so wonderful and new.

N is for our Nation and freedoms that we share.

G is for Gratitude expressed to God in our prayers.

Happy Thanksgiving!

© 2010 Audrey Smith