

A still life arrangement of autumn produce. On the left, a large, light-brown wicker basket is tipped, spilling a variety of fruits and vegetables. The produce includes several orange pumpkins of different sizes, clusters of dark purple grapes, bright red apples, yellow and green gourds, and several walnuts. In the foreground, there are ears of corn, more grapes, and a yellow squash. The background is a neutral, textured grey surface. The overall composition is rich and colorful, evoking a sense of harvest and gratitude.
